Somewhere Over the Rainbow: Clinical Practice with the Transgender Community

Working with transgender individuals in clinical practice often requires a distinct level of understanding, awareness, and skills to ensure inclusive, personalized care. Starting with our own understanding of gender identity, it is essential that we as clinicians are well-versed in the appropriate background, language used, and barriers and individual issues that transgender clients face. How can we ensure that we provide the highest level of empathy, respect, and quality care to all clients, and develop an awareness of how our own biases may impact our work? Join us for an informative and engaging discussion on the transgender community and clinical practice. Participants will walk away with essential knowledge, tools, and skills necessary for providing nonjudgmental and inclusive care for transgender individuals.

Agenda:

12:15 – 12:30 pm:	Registration, Complimentary Lunch, & Welcome
12:30 - 1:30 pm:	Presentations
1:30 pm:	Evaluations and Adjourn

By attending our workshop, you will be able to:

1. Distinguish between sexual orientation and gender identity.
2. Identify at least two ways to create a more supportive and inclusive atmosphere for transgender clients.
3. Name at least two environmental and healthcare barriers transgender individuals face.
