About Brunch 2 a Better U Series:

We have been approached by so many of you all that are interested in implementing positive changes in your lives – but in the craziness of our day-to-day lives it's a challenge to bring these changes to fruition. Do you want to see positive change in your life? Personally? Professionally? Both? Join us at this unique Brunch Series Event – where we provide education centered around self-improvement.

As clinicians, we often hear the buzzwords “Patient/Client Centered Care” – but have we ever stopped to consider what does this mean? What does it feel like to walk in the shoes of our patients and clients through a debilitating and scary diagnosis? Our unique format of learning will spotlight exactly this. We will begin with an overview of Tom Willner, Author and Cancer Survivor (interviewed by Anne McSweeney, LMSW) tell his courageous story of his physical and emotional battle with cancer. From there, we move into “Turning Thirty, The Musical” which showcases a young couple that is contemplating starting a family and is suddenly faced with a diagnosis of cancer. Tom will perform his musical that's based on his personal battle with testicular cancer. He uses music and drama to explore his journey of hope, courage, love, and family. Following the musical performance, Anne McSweeney, LMSW and Tom Willner, Cancer Survivor and Author will lead a roundtable discussion around the topics of survivorship (and what is often overlooked), more emotional aspects of dealing with illness and how he used music as a muse to cope. He will also read some excerpts from his newly released book – that each participant receives a copy! Hearing Tom's perspectives are truly eye-opening and will change the way we interact with our patients and clients going forward. Don't miss this amazing training that has been featured at multiple National conferences!
