Motivational Interviewing is an ethical, effective technique for professionals in many practice settings to engage in meaningful conversations with clients to help facilitate attitude and behavior change. This workshop examines a brief definition and history, theoretical framework, style and spirit, process, and techniques of motivational interviewing. The workshop also explores how biases and diversity influence behavior and services, and provides tools for reflection, self-monitoring and regulation to manage personal values and maintain professional standards of practice.

BY ATTENDING OUR WORKSHOP, YOU WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Review the basic terminology and framework of motivational interviewing
- Examine the meaning of using style and spirit with motivational interviewing techniques
- Gain understanding of the motivational interviewing process
- Learn basic techniques for using motivational interviewing in each process step
- Identify and evaluate how biases and diversity influence Motivational Interviewing practice
- Explore the practice of reflection, self-monitoring and regulation to ensure ethical practice in Motivational Interviewing
