Inequalities in healthcare is an issue that affects every single person. This course will provide a brief overview of those inequalities in the healthcare system. Inequalities in healthcare can be difficult to identify because of the number of components within the structure itself. Understanding the whole system will provide insights that will help healthcare professionals

BY ATTENDING OUR WORKSHOP, YOU WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Apply systems theory to health care and a person's overall health.
- Identify determinants of health for various demographics.
- Identify their role and responsibilities as social workers and public services workers to combat inequalities in healthcare.

Course Interaction and Technical Requirements: This live webinar is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions. A computer or mobile device is required. Zoom account is not required. You will receive an email approximately 24 hours prior to the start of the class with a link to the webinar.

In order to receive credit, you must login on time, attend the entire presentation, and complete an online evaluation within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the event. Attendance log and Zoom analytics will be reviewed by the CE Director. Certificates will be provided in approximately 5 business days.

Target audience: Social workers, case managers, discharge planners, nurses and other healthcare professionals.
